Long John Saver Spring Newsletter

It's never too early to start teaching your kids the importance of saving money. While we're bombarded with temptations to spend, saving money needs to be an important part of our financial education.

Learning to save helps set goals and shows how earning interest helps money grow over time.

Our Coins for Community partner, the Virginia Beach Fire Foundation, encourages children to learn more about fire safety. Visit the Virginia Beach Fire Safety website to learn about the VBFD Safety Squad Program.

Check out the below fun activities: Preschool Activity, Elementary Age Activity, Coloring Sheet

Movies are really fun, but watch out-they can also be expensive! Take this quiz to see if you're a savings star.

Choose the best option for saving the most money:

- 1. When you want to see a movie, you...
  - A. Only see the expensive 3D showing.
  - B. Go early when tickets are cheaper.
  - C. Wait until you can stream it on your TV.
- 2. When you buy snacks at the theatre, you...
  - A. Always upgrade the size of your popcorn.
  - B. Get a combo if it saves money.
  - C. Eat snacks at home before you go.
- 3. Do you buy all of the merchandise (toys, video games, cereal) from a movie?
  - A. Yes, all of it!
  - B. Only if it's a collector's item.
  - C. Only if I really like it.

How'd you do?

If most of your answers were:

C's ~You're a true cinema saver!

B's ~You're on the right track!

A's ~Uh oh, looks like you're spending a lot. Don't worry, next time you want to see a movie, think how you can save more.
