Do YOU Have the Grades?

Education is important to us, and we want to reward you for a job well done!

How can you enter the Good Grade Drawing? Here's how it works:

- Grades K-5 should receive AP or P(s) in Citizenship & Work Habits
- Grades 6-12 should be on Honor Roll or Principal's list
- A student must be a member of Beach Municipal FCU

Each grading period, one winner will be randomly selected from each group: Elementary, Middle and High School. Winner will receive $25.00 deposited into your saving account! Next submission period, begins April 2nd.

Do you have the boredom-spending bug?

Boredom-spending is when you buy things just because you have nothing else to do. Are you a boredom-spender?

Take this quiz and find out:

1. You and your friends run out of games to play. Do you:
 - A. Go on a shopping spree at the mall.
 - B. Save money and ride your bikes.
2. When it's raining outside, would you rather:
 - A. Download a bunch of expensive apps to pass the time.
 - B. Work on an awesome puzzle.
3. You've had your skateboard for a month. You want to:
 - A. Buy a new one! A month is a looooong time.
 - B. Keep on riding! Your board will last a while.

If you answered "a" to any of these questions, you might have the boredom-spending bug. But don't worry-there's a cure! The next time you're bored, save your money instead of spending it.

Our Coins for Community 1st quarter partner is the Oceana Volunteer Fire Department (OVFD)

Founded in 1948, the Oceana Volunteer Fire Department \(OVFD\) stands as the only active volunteer fire organization within the City of Virginia Beach. Operating in seamless partnership with the VBFD, its members provide essential on-scene support, including firefighting assistance and the operation of the city's primary Rehabilitation (REHAB) unit. Beyond emergency response, the OVFD is a champion for the future of the trade, hosting the Fire Cadet program for young adults ages 15-21. Whether through administrative expertise or on-the-ground support, the OVFD remains a vital, volunteer-driven heartbeat of city safety
